The Washington Times

NUMBER 4384.

WASHINGTON, WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 13, 1906.

PRICE ONE CENT.

SOLEMN SERVICES AT OBSEQUIES OF COL. EDWIN B. HAY

Fraternal Hands Laid Popular Washingtonian to Rest.

FRIENDS AND FLOWERS

Testimonials of Sorrow and Esteem Sent Here From Far and Near.

At the late residence of Col. Edwin Barrett Hay, at 2:15 o'clock this afterncon, the Gridiron Club and Wasning ton Lodge of Elks paid their last tributes to the memory of their departed friend and brother. The services were simple, but rarely beautiful and pa-

The parlors were filled with the mem bers of the club, a delegation from the ledge of Elks and the intimate personal friends of Colonel Hay. The flowers that lay upon and around the casket were among the most beautiful ever seen at a Washington funeral. Con spicuous among them was the offerin of the Gridiron Club, a great mass of roses and orchids. It lay upon the casket. Clustered about were the tribcasket. Clustered about were the tributes from the organizations of which Colonel Hay was a member—the symbols of these orders reproduced in flowers. The cross of the Templars, the square and compass of the Masons, the links of Odd Fellowship were all con-spicuous, but they formed but a small part, relatively, of the whole number of

"Crossing the Bar."

In this impressive setting the services "Crossing the Bar," Ten- for neurasthenia at his institut poem, which had been one of Colonel Hay's favorites, was sung by Mr. Muldoon. quartet, consisting of Herndon Mor-daily and goes on long walks. Alexander Mosher, sang two selectionsful home services by the Elks and a prayer by the Rev. Alfred Harding. De Koven," continued Mr. Muldoon, "is rector of St. Paul's Protestant Episcotendance. The delegations from the va- fo rious Masonic bodies, including Columbia Commandery, Knights Templar, in uniform; from the Odd Fellows, the Elks, the Bar Association of the District, and other organizations, combined with the friends of the dead man to till the auditorium. The impressive serlee of the church was conducted by Dr. Harding.

The Active Pallbearers.

The pallbearers represented the vestry of St. Paul's Pentalpha Lodge of Massons; Columbia Commandery, K. T.; Washington Lodge of Elks; the Gridiron Club, and the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows. The representatives of the vestry were John McKenney and Mr. Finney, of the Gridiron Club, Fourth Assistant Postmaster General P. V. DeGraw and of the Odd Fellows, W. J. La Varre and D. V. Chisholm, Grand Guardian of the

D. V. Chisholm, Grand Guardian of the Grand Lodge.

That Elkdom realizes its loss in the death of "Ned" Hay was demonstrated in the many telegrams of sorrow and sympathy received yesterday by Washington Lodge of Elks. Wilhout exception either Exalted Ruler Mattingly or Secretary O'Brien were requested to express the extreme sorrow of the other lodges, and authorized to send floral tributes in respect to their dead friend. Baltimore Lodge, No. 7, sent a delegation to the funeral.

De Koven's Friends Here Reticent as to Illness for the condition of the her husband, Reginald de Koven, the composer, who is knitting up the raveled sleave of care on Billy Muldoon's farm at White Plains.

"He got tired and fat, that is all," explained Mrs. de Koven.

De Koven's Friends Here Reticent as to Illness for the composer. Who is knitting up the raveled sleave of care on Billy Muldoon's farm at White Plains.

"He got tired and fat, that is all," explained Mrs. de Koven.

De Koven's Friends Here Reticent as to Illness for the composer. Who is knitting up the raveled sleave of care on Billy Muldoon's farm at White Plains.

"He got tired and fat, that is all," explained Mrs. de Koven.

News of Reginald De Koven's area of sleave of care on Billy Muldoon's farm at White Plains.

"He got tired and fat, that is all," explained Mrs. de Koven.

News of Reginald De Koven's area on Billy Muldoon's farm at White Plains.

"He got tired and fat, that is all," explained Mrs. de Koven.

News of Reginald De Koven's area on Billy Muldoon's farm at White Plains.

"He got tired and fat, that is all," explained Mrs. de Koven.

News of Reginald De Koven's area on Billy Muldoon's farm at White Plains.

"He got tired and fat, that is all," explained Mrs. de Koven.

News of Reginald De Koven's area on Billy Muldoon's farm at White Plains.

"He got tired and fat, that is all," explained Mrs. de Koven.

From Grand Exalted Ruler.

The grand exalted ruler of the order, Robert W. Brown, sent a telegram of

The southern storm has moved inland to northwestern Georgia, and the rain area has extended into the Ohio valley and the Virginias. There was no other precipitation, except showers in the North Pacific States, and local thunderstorms in pertions of the extreme West. There will be rish tonight in the Middle and South Atlantic States, the Ohio valley, and Lower Lake region, continuing Thursday, except in the South Atlantic States.

Temperatures will change but little.

· TEMPERATURE.

DOWNTOWN TEMPERATURE. (Registered Affleck's Standard Thermometer.)

Sun sets today...........

"Fine and Dandy Is Reginald De Koven," Says William Muldoon

Director of Hygienic Institute Denies Rumors of Dangerous Illness.

REGINALD DE KOVEN.

doon, at whose hygienic institute, at White Plains, Reginald De Koven is undergoing a course of treatment for a complete nervous break down, when seen this morning, said that it was true that Mr. De Koven was being treated

"But he's fine and dandy," asserted Mrs. Thomas C. Noyes. The Gridiron miles every day, takes two shower baths sell, John H. Nolan, Henry Kaiser, and would not think that he was a sick man if you could see him. And that course "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "Abide of treatment would not fit in very well, if he was in very had health would it? if he was in very bad health, would it: 'All that we are hoping to do for Mr.

to reduce his weight. He has neurasthenia, you know, and that paralyzes the nerves so that a man gets fat and members of the Gridiron Club acted as escort to the remains.

At the church there was a great at "Mr. De Koven will get over "Mr. De Koven will get over the church there was a great at "Mr. De Koven will get over the church there was a great at "Mr. De Koven will get over the church there was a great at "Mr. De Koven will get over the church there was a great at "Mr. De Koven will get over the church there was a great at "Mr. De Koven will get over the church there was a great at "Mr. De Koven will get over the church there was a great at "Mr. De Koven will get over the church there was a great at "Mr. De Koven will get over the church there was a great at "Mr. De Koven will get over the church there was a great at "Mr. De Koven will get over the church the ch Those who have watched Mr. De Koven's gradual decline in health for several months past are not as optimistic about his condition as is Mr. Muldoon. They believe that it may be months before the composer will be able to regain his health.

McGann-Winston Wedding.

Mrs. Reginald de Koven told as muc as she saw fit today of the marriage tomoved to Rock Creek, where the final rites were performed by Dr. Harding, followed by the funeral service of the Odd Fellows, conducted by Beacon
Lodge. E. W. Bradford, grand master of the Odd Fellows of the District, was the noble grand, and Joseph R. Fague, past grand chaplain.

mot let it out when he was arrested on Monday for running his master's automobile too rapidly.

"My sister and Mr. McGann are to be married tomorrow," said Mrs. de Koven today to a reporter who saw her in her apartments in the Warington on Madison avenue.

"The ceremony will take place in town in an Episcopal church, but I won't tell you which one. Mr. McGann, of Milton, Mass., will perform the ceremony. No one will be there excepting three or four of us. No invited guests at all."

Mrs. de Koven said that there was nothing alarming in the condition of her husband, Reginald de Koven, the composer, who is knitting up the raveled ed sleave of care on Billy Muldoon's farm at White Plains.

Thieves Entered One of Fashionable Residences

Fashionable Residences

of Richmond.

The Essex is a chip of 2,000 tons, and is valued at $300,000. How much cargo was on her is not known, but the dam was on her is not known but the dam was on her is not known but the dam was on her is not known but the dam was on her is not known but the dam was on her is not known but the dam was on her is not known but the dam was on her is not known but to the city hospital.

The Essex is called the beaved wa

News of Reginald De Koven's nervous breakdown came as something of a surprise to many musicians who had been associated with him in Washington, although many of his intimate friends had known of his condition for some time. Sydney Lloyd Wrightson, of the Washington College of Music, returned from New York this morning. Asked if he knew of Mr. De Koven's condition, further than the statements published in the newspapers, he said that he did but declined to discuss the Robert W. Brown, sent a telegram of condolence in the name of the grand lodge, also one individually. New York, No. I, wired its sorrow through Secretary B. J. Fagan. Secretary J. S. Reynolds expressed the grief and sympathy of Chicago, No. 4.

Leon Schiff, exalted ruler of Baltimore Lodge, No. 7, with Secretary David Wiesenfeld, sent the sympathetic sentiments of that lodge.

THE WEATHER REPORT.

The southern storm has moved inland to non'thwestern Georgia, and the rain area has extended into the Ohio valley and the Virginias. There was no other band was in a sanatorium, and in rather a serious condition.

"Mrs. De Koven's letter came as an answer to a letter I had written Mr. De Koven, stating that her husband was ill, and wo!" be obliged to be away all summer. The nature of his illness was not stated, further than saying that it was a general nervous breakdown."

Archive Lafean introduced a resolution in the House today providing for an investigation of the Navy Department by the House Committee on Naval Affairs.

Mr. Lafean's reason for introducing the resolution is that he is convinced that the Navy Department has been that the Navy Department by the House Committee on Naval Affairs. that the Navy Depatrment has been Percy & Foster said that he had no other knowledge on the subject than what appeared in the newspapers.

WIFE OF A CHINAMAN PROVES TO BE HEROINE

CHICAGO, June 13 .- Me; Sing Low, sixty-seven years old, dying, has left 65 for China. With him went his twenty106 five-year-old wife and ten-year-old son.
107 Low, like most of his race, wishes burial with his forbears, and he wanted his wife to go with him. In going with him the woman abandons all hope of ever returning.

SCULPTOR RODIN HONORED.

purchasing shoes for the enlisted men of the navy.

According to Mr. Lafean, the depart-

According to Mr. Lafean, the department advertised last month for bids for furrishing 20,000 pairs of shoes. On June 5 the department awarded the contract to Jöseph Herman & Sons, of Boston, at 28 cents a pair higher than would have been the cost if the contract had been awarded to the lowest bidder, Gimble Brothers, of Philadelphia.

THREE LIVES LOST IN BALTIMORE FIRE; $2,000,000 DAMAGE

Shipping Destroyed by Blaze Recalling Great Conflagration.

STEAMER ESSEX BURNED

City Warehouse, on Block Street, and Dozens of Scows Destroyed.

BALTIMORE, Md., June 13.-Three lives were lost and damage estimated at $2,000,000 was done to docks and shipping in a fire which destroyed the Savannah wharf of the Merchants and Miners Transportation Company early this

The dead, all members of the steamer Essex's crew, are: Edward Atkinson, Baltimore, captain's abin assistant.

John Costello, Baltimore, second stew

Manuel Odello, fireman, residence un nown, head burned off.

Five other men were rescued with diffiulty by the tug Mary, two of them narrowly escaping death in the flames or rowning, as they were forced to make lying leaps to the rescuing vessel from the deck of the Essex as the former total pulled away from the burning leamer. They are:

John Claypool, Baltimore. Richard Bamber, Pawtucket, R. I. Charles McCommon, Baltimore, Peter Hagan, 172 Washington street rooklyn, N. Y. Nicholson Connolly, Baltimore

Started on a Scow.

The fire started at 1:30 a. m. on a scoing to the east of the wharf, alongside which was a dredging machine. The re made quick headway, and before wharf, which is 690 feet long, was in

The steamer Essex, which arrived in ort several nights ago, and which was half unloaded, was lying alongside of the south end of the wharf. She caught ire and was towed out into the har-for burning flercely, and at 6 o'clock nothing remained of her but a batter

Eight scows and barges that were also lying alongside of the wharf were ignited at once and were soon completely destroyed. A number of them were towed into midstream so as to prevent them from setting fire to adjoining propert. The barges and scows were aded with cotton and rosin.

Fire Caused Panic.

MRS. DE KOVEN.

Thieves Entered One of

The residents of houses on the north ide of Block street, facing the wharf, RAIDED HER HOME were panic-stricken, and for a while t looked as though their homes were doomed.

Two old women who were ill, Mrs. O Neill and Mrs. Wells, residing at 1130 ock street, locked themselves in and

After thoroughly doing the lower floor structure four hundred feet long and they proceeded to go upstairs, and no one was aware of their presence until the household heard Mrs. English, who is a lady past middle age, screaming they proceeded to go upstairs, and no one was aware of their presence until the household heard Mrs. English, who is a lady past middle age, screaming they proceeded to go upstairs, and no one was aware of their presence until the household heard Mrs. English, who is only eighteen years old was reported at and Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain, Sir John the household heard Mrs. English, who is only eighteen years old was reported at and Lady Lister-Kaye, the Countess of the home. Then with the messenger the storage house adjoining which also be-Reticent as to Illness frantically for help.

Reticent as to Illness frantically for help.

Reticent as to Illness frantically for help. gan to burn within a few minutes.

Wharf Belonged to City.

The wharf destroyed was the property pany from the city. The Merchants and Miners' property is partly insured.

The steamer Essex was one of the oldest steamers of the Merchants and Miners' line, having been built in 1885.

(Continued on Eighth Page.)

NO CLUE TO BOY SPIRITED AWAY

The Mysterious Message.

This is the telegram which lured seven-year-old Charles Frederick Muth from school:

"Mother seriously hurt and wants to see her boy right away.

"CHARLES MUTH."

Mysterious man meets boy with this; "Come on, Fred, you are wanted at Mysterious message "Don't worry about Fred. He is in our yard playing and will be home all right.'

King Bestows Peculiar LIKE CHARLIE ROSS, STOLEN FROM HOME

was lured from school by a deceptive telegram. The message intimated to the secretary of the streets awaiting an opportunity to attive telegram. The message intimated to the secretary of the se that his mother was seriously hurt British embassy at Washington; Lord states Governor Swanson is determined boy started away on the run.

Meets Mysterious Stranger. At Fifteenth and Jefferson streets the

Both are persuaded that the little fellow has been kidnapped and will be held for ransom.

The abductor-if such heis-is described of the city having been purchased from as a man of ragged appearance, bethe steamship company after the contween forty-five and fifty years old, flagration here in 1904, when it was deweighing about 150 pounds, about 5 feet

Honor Upon President's Daughter.

Authorities, as Well as point was settled by King Edward when at the banquet last night he had the daughter of the American President spated heside him.

to Whereabouts.

The attention paid by his majesty to Mrs. Longworth was marked. They chatted as though they were old friends, and both seemed to enjoy the meeting.

Among the guests were the Duke of Richmond and Gordon, the Duke and Duchess of Buccleuch, the Duke and Duchess of Mariborough, the Duke and Duchess of Mariborough, the Duke of Wealthy jeweler of this city and wealthy jeweler of this city and Tweedmouth Countess Grey, wife of the streets awaiting an opposituation of the American President defrom Portsmouth and Norfolk, arrived there shortly before midnight.

Disappointed and angered, many of the Marylanders armed themselves with guns, and wanted to storm the jail. When they found the jail was safely guarded they tried to persuade the Virginians to aid them in breaking down the stone structure.

Mob Parading Streets.

This morning the mob is parading the streets awaiting an opposituality to be streets awaiting an opposituality to the streets awaiting the The Essex arrived yesterday from Savannah with a miscellaneous cargo and led to belief that it was signed and Lady Lansdowne; Paul Cambon, the French ambassador and dean of the been issued for an entire regiment to be that the control of the been issued for an entire regiment to be the control of the been issued for an entire regiment to be the control of the been issued for an entire regiment to be the control of the been issued for an entire regiment to be the control of the been issued for an entire regiment to be the control of the been issued for an entire regiment to be the control of the beautiful that t cipal of the school yesterday aft- of Powis, the Earl and Countess of Goswife of the late Secretary of War of the United States.

and many others whose names stand her. man, who had sent the messenger, met high in Burke's were present.

The feature of today's entertainment Mob at Eastville of the Longworths will be the great reception tendered at Dorchester House you to the hospital to see your mother." ception tendered at Dorchester House by Amtassador Reid in their honor. them since. At the home the father Everybody who is anybody will be prespaces the floor in dumb grief, while the ent to greet the young American prin-mother moans in anguish and terror. cess, as she is very generally called.

Honors for President's Sake.

the steamship company after the conflagration here in 1904, when it was determined to make extensive dock improvements; it was leased by the company from the city. The Merchants and Miners' property is partly insured.

The steamer Essex was one of the collect steamers of the Merchants and Miners' property is partly insured.

The steamer Essex was one of the collect steamers of the Merchants and Diagraphic and Miners' property is partly insured.

The steamer Essex was one of the collect steamers of the Merchants and Diagraphic daughter, marked his esteem for the Beautiful Decorations.

Particular care had been taken not to mar by undue decorations the beauties of the interior of Dorchester House, but flowers of every variety, cut and potted, were used in profusion in banking the work of the profusion and the configuration of the profusion in the configuration of the profusion of the configuration of bases of the massive columns and the saulting Mrs. Barnes and Miss Powell,

King Edward escorted Mrs. Reid, and at the King's desire Mrs. Longworth was seated at the other side of him, thus taking precedence of the day. thus taking precedence of the duchesses. Ambassador Reid escorted the Duchess ITALIAN'S HEAD CUT OFF of Marlborough, with the Duchess of Buccleuch on his left.

Concert After Dinner. The concert was almost as notable as

Each of these sang two songs, and the program concluded with a quartet from "Rigoletto."

"Rigoletto."

Westerday afternoon.

The body was taken to the morgue, and later Coroner Nevitt gave a certificate of accidental death.

FOR LIVES OF COLORED MEN

Maryland Peninsula Excited Over a Second Assault at King's Creek.

EASTVILLE SHERIFF WANTS MORE TROOPS

Armed Crowds Parading Streets Demand Blood of Alleged Assailant of Women.

POCOMOKE CITY, Md., June 13 .-The assault upon two white women by a negro near Kingston, Sunday night, and a brutal attack on Samuel Barnes, a farmer, by another negro, near King's Creek, have aroused the fury of the citizens of Somerset and Worcester counties.

Ned Watson, a South Carolina negro, who yesterday attacked and fatally injured Samuel S. Barnes, a farmer, at King's Creek, was captured near here late last night and nearly killed by a mob. Watson had been in the employ of Mr. Barnes. They had some words about wages. After receiving his pay Watson followed Mr. Barnes into the barn and when his back was turned Watson picked up a piece of scantling and struck the farmer on the head, rendering him unconscious. The negro then jumped upon his body and tramped in his face.

Mr. Barnes' skull was fractured. Watson was locked in the town lockup, but it is reported that a mob is being organized to lynch the negro at the first opportunity.

Whole Peninsula Aroused.

The entire lower portion of the Maryaroused over the terrible double crime committed by William Simmons, color-ed, who on Sunday night assaulted Mrs. G. Robert Barnes and Miss Frances Powell, near Kingston.

Hundreds of desperate men went from LONDON, June 13.-Mrs. Alice Roose-velt Longworth ranks with a royal prin-the peninsula today to Cape Charles

Information received this morning

The note was handed to the prindiplomatic corps; Admiral Fournier, of the French navy; the Earl and Countess for Eastville. The condition of Miss Powell, who is cover. For a while it was thought that Mrs. Barnes would be able to leave the hospital today, but the doctors say the At the reception after the dinner they trip to her home would prove fatal to

Grows in Numbers

EASTVILLE, Va., June 13.-The mob ent to greet the young American prin-cess, as she is very generally called. Simmons, has now increased to 2,000 about the jail. Major Salimonsky, of Honors for President's Sake.

Company E, of the Seventy-first Volunteer Regiment, finds he cannot cope representative of any foreign Govern-ment attracted as much attention on ernor Swanson, through Adjutant the part of the social, diplomatic, and Charles J. Anderson, of Virginia, for

United States and its Chief Executive. Lee, in Jail at Norfolk, Confesses to Assault

BY A RAILROAD TRAIN

Decapitated by the wheels of a Baltimere and Ohio railroad engine, the dinner, the program being provided body of Dominico Tuido, an Italian labby Mme. Eames, Mme. Kirkby Lunn, orer, twenty-one years old, was found on the tracks near Kensington, Md.,

The first news of the successful flight of Roy Knabenshue or

WATCH THE TIMES FLAGPOLE

Lincoln Beachey, from Luna Park, in the Knabenshue Airship No. 2, will be given to Washington by The Washington Times. One hour before the flight begins, no matter at what time, a United States flag will be hoisted on The Times flagpole. This will give ample notice to the curious to reach the park by trolley. At the instant of the actual start the flag will be lowered. The minute the ship comes in sight of the Park on the return, proving the success of the flight, the flag will again be hoisted, but this time for only a few minutes.

WATCH THE TIMES FLAGPOLE